

The sisters of Mac, Mary King, Lillian Cheatham, Kathleen Phillips, Nora Swenson and Dorothy Wolloch, said in a note to the KCLC... "...we appreciate very much that your retirement gifts to Mac will now be presented to the Shriner's Fund for Crippled Children in his memory. Our brother had been a Mason for almost 60 years, so the memorial is particularly fitting and very worthy one. We wish that it were possible to thank each of you personally for your memorial gifts."

The donation received from many of you toward a retirement gift will be presented to the Shriner's Fund for Crippled Children in Mac's memory.

Those of you who have not made a donation but wish to should send it to the King County Labor Council marked for this purpose or mail it directly to the Shriner's Fund for Crippled Children, 229 Third North, Seattle 98109.

THANATOPSIS

Mac's favorite poem, Thanatopsis, by William C. Bryant, was read at his Memorial Service by Betty Brown of the King County Labor Council:

*So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like a quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.*
